OBERAMMERGAU IS PREPARING FOR THE
PASSION PLAY TO BE PRESENTED IN 1950

Since the time when the Passion Play was last presented sixteen years ago, the civilized world has been shaken in its very foundations. Only true love can bridge the gulf, and only a sincere cooperative spirit can overcome misery and despondency.

Once in every ten years the people of Oberammergau, faithful to their view of more than 300 years ago, perform the Holy Play commemorating the Life and Passion of our Lord. For centuries the play, unknown to fame, was performed quietly and unobtrusively; for the last three generations, however, it has, to a growing extent, attracted the peoples of Christianity from all over the world drawing them to the seclusion of the Bavarian mountains and to the cross erected above the village.

We intend to present the Passion Play in 1950 in spite of the economic hazards in an impoverished country and despite many difficulties and obstacles. The village council have their full share of daily troubles like most communities; nevertheless, all problems concerning the Passion Play were solved in a spirit of perfect harmony and unanimity owing to their conviction of fulfilling a sacred duty.

Oberammergau has observed this vow and handed it down from father to son, through fair times and foul, guided by a profound faith and thus achieving and maintaining the high standard of the Play.

And when the Prologue enters the stage at the head of the chorus announcing the ancient Play before the glorious scene of the mountains in the pure light of the open sky, the first three words he speaks reveal all our hopes for redemption and stand for the supreme ideals the Oberammergau Passion Play means to serve:
