ARCHIVIST'S NOTES

This electronic file of the 1954 NHS yearbook, "The Voyager," is reproduced from Erinnerungen, published by the seniors of 1954 in the American Dependents Schools in Germany and France. This was the sixth year the yearbooks from all the high schools were combined into one volume.

Those people desiring a complete electronic file of the 1954 Erinnerungen may contact NAA founder T. D. Jorgensen through the Association website.

ERINNERUNGEN

PUBLISHED BY SENIORS OF 1954
AMERICAN HIGH SCHOOLS OF GERMANY AND FRANCE

DEDICATION

Because we believe in the right of man to live within the scope of the dignity of his soul, we dedicate our yearbook to Light. May it penetrate the shadows of doubt, fear, and suspicion, that devastate this troubled continent upon which we live.

FOREWORD

To you who have just turned the first page of ERINNERUNGEN:

You are about to read the pages and look at the pictures which represent a year in Europe to every American high school student in Germany and France, especially to those who have had any part, no matter how small, in the production of this book. Before you turn the next page, you may have no idea of what is to follow. Perhaps not until you have perused every article and picture in our annual will you realize that fourteen different schools in foreign lands have worked together to prepare one memory book.

Our yearbook has grown from the original 317 pages which represented seven schools in 1949 to the 536 pages you are now reading which represent eleven high schools and three junior highs in Germany and France. Each school has a unique story to tell. Our European setting makes Erinnerungen entirely different from the usual annual, for each staff emphasizes its particular background with a theme which brings out a distinctive feature of its environment. Yet every one contributes to the story of American youth living and learning in a foreign country.

To our friends at home we hope to give a few glimpses of our school life in Europe. To those who are a part of “our big family,” who will never forget your European alma maters, we bring memories of the laughter and tears, the successes and failures, and all the little details that only you can remember — all of which make this year one of the best in our lives.

[High schools in this book: Berlin, Bremerhaven, Frankfurt, Heidelberg, Kaiserslautern, Munich, Nuernberg, Paris, Rochefort, Stuttgart, Wiesbaden, Baumholder, Wuerzburg, Orleans – Archivist]

Members of the Graduating Class:

You have been privileged to enjoy the unique experience of obtaining an American education in a foreign country which has over the centuries contributed to the cultural heritage of our nation. Many of you have been in Germany for several years and thus have had the good fortune to observe the tremendous progress made by the German people. You can profit from this experience in the important task of furthering and strengthening the cultural bonds between the two countries.

The American schools in Germany are an expression of our national heritage. The attitudes and behavior of United States citizens abroad determine to a large extent the idea of America current in the minds of the inhabitants of a foreign country. In a sense each of you may be considered a special representative of America. You have an important responsibility in demonstrating our concept of the way of life in a free nation.

In the crucial years ahead youth will be called upon to play an increasingly important role in world affairs. Because of your enlarged horizons through living and learning abroad, you can be of great service, I feel sure, in furthering the cause of freedom and understanding among the free countries of the world.

JAMES B. CONANT
United States High Commissioner for Germany

To the 1954 High School Graduates:

At the close of the academic year, it is customary in thousands of schools and colleges throughout the world to congratulate the graduates upon the successful completion of their studies. To those of you who are being graduated from the high schools of the United States Army in Europe, I should like to express my congratulations in a great deal more than the customary sense.

It is no small achievement to carry out a significant program of work over a period of twelve or thirteen years. For most of you, this job has been complicated by the frequent moves associated with the military profession. In many cases, it has been necessary for you to become acquainted with new languages and new customs while adjusting at the same time to more advanced studies, new teachers, and different school systems. Along with all this, you have made many new friendships and have taken part in a wide variety of school and community activities.

Here in Europe our schools have placed special emphasis on an appreciation of foreign cultures and on the development of international understanding. The opportunities you have had for broadening experiences in a foreign land, coupled with the adaptability you have shown in meeting so many new situations, promise well for your future as participating members in a democratic world community.

Congratulations and best wishes.

Sincerely,

THE VOYAGER

NURNBERG AMERICAN HIGH SCHOOL

1954

Hi ...

Sorry I haven't written sooner but, honestly, I've just been too busy. You know how it is when final exam time rolls around.

In your last letter you asked me about the school I'm attending. It's really a very attractive school, and three stories of it. On the front is a wonderful glass facade which is beautiful until one starts decorating it for the Christmas holidays. Then one gets the feeling that he's never seen so much glass. I'm enclosing a picture of the school so you can see what it's like from the outside. The inside is very modern. All the windows have red and white awnings, and just inside the front door there is a huge mural. I thought you might be interested in that, so I'm sending along a picture of it.

By now you're probably wondering what the other picture is. It's a snapshot of the dormitory. Okay, okay! If you'll calm down a minute, I'll tell you why a high school has a dormitory.

You see, there are so many little villages with just one or two kids of high school age living there that it's impossible to build a high school in each town. So we have high schools in several large cities, and the students from outlying districts attend them by using the dormitories and going home only on week-ends. Get it?

*There are also three elementary schools and a kindergarten on the "campus" of our school. One of the elementary buildings was finished just last fall. In fact, the whole school is comparatively new, since it was completed in January, 1951.**

I'll finish this later. Mother wants me to go to the PX for her ...

* Both the school newspaper and yearbook for 1951-52 say the date was January 1952. – Archivist

1953-54 Index to School Personnel

Classifications are indicated by sr for senior, jr for junior, soph for sophomore, fr for freshman. Subjects taught by teachers are in italics. Transfers in and out are marked where known. Those personnel with TR after their name are mentioned in at least one issue of "The Trichter" but do not appear in the yearbook. DNG after names of seniors means they did not graduate with their class. They may have transferred out, but their transfer is not mentioned in extant issues of "The Trichter."

FACULTY

Hi! I'm back again. After glancing over your letter to see what you wanted to know, I've decided on the faculty. Okay?

I'll have to begin with last year so you will get everything straight. You see, Miss Palmer was our guidance director last year. She was doing a wonderful job and knew this school like a book — so when we needed a new principal this year, Miss Palmer was appointed. And we certainly are lucky! She's a very fine person and, more important, a wonderful friend.

We have something in our school that you don't have. What? — a school officer, of course. What's that? Well, the military schools here have school officers that handle the "military" part of school administration, such as transportation, military correspondence, and loads of other things. I'd hate to have Lieutenant Gerber's job, but she's the nicest person and she's certainly helping us.

I won't go into detail about the rest of the faculty because, to be honest, there are way too many. But I thought maybe you'd be interested in knowing how they happen to be teaching over here. They are very carefully selected according to their past experience and education. Most of the teachers love to travel and spend their vacations and holidays in Switzerland, France, Austria, and many other countries.

This is the first year I've ever seen teachers that really enjoy a high school dance. Every single teacher comes to the dances, and they seem to have as good a time as we do. Of course, the teachers have their private parties too, and according to the faculty, they have a wonderful time! Here are some snapshots.

Oh, another thing. We are privileged to have a nurse and a dentist right here in the school. Wonderful, huh?

CLASSES

At last, we're seniors! Did you ever think we'd make it? Remember when we were freshmen? We'd look at the upperclassmen and wonder if we'd ever be lucky enough to say, "WE'RE seniors." We made it, gal, and now we haven't much longer to go. I'm sure I'll always remember my senior year; it's been so much fun.

Since the kids come and go from month to month in Army schools, we can't elect our class officers at the end of the year as you do in Stateside schools. We never know who's going to be here the next year. So that's the first thing we do when school starts.

We very promptly elected Jack Crenshaw Student Council president. Horton Chandler became our class president; Ann Moore, our vice-president; Betty Thomas, our secretary; and Charles Cobb, our treasurer. Bernice Coghlan and Betty Thomas were elected as class representatives to the Student Council.

We certainly have had our share of fun this year — yelling ourselves hoarse at the games, attending open house parties at the dorm, skating, dancing at the youth center, and picnicking. And, of course, there were the big dances — the homecoming dance, the Christmas formal, the Valentine dance, and, last but not least, our beloved junior-senior prom. We seniors certainly added our share of laughter to the fun!

I certainly wish you could be here to graduate with me. We had some big plans about graduation, didn't we? But I'll be seeing you soon.

Enough about the seniors. If you can stand the scribble, I'll start another page and tell you about our underclassmen. Oh, before I forget it, here are some snapshots of a few of the kids ...

CLASS WILL

- I, Claude Anderson, leave my mild, mannered ways to Larry O'Connell.
 I, France Cardinale, leave the saying, "dynamite comes in small packages," to Larry O'Connell.
 I, Horton Chandler, leave my football number to Bill Allen.
 I, Charles Cobb, leave my sports announcing ability to Bill La Grand.
 I, Bernice Coghlan, leave my gym number to "Shorty" Anderson.
 I, John Cole, leave my artistic ability to Ken Robbins.
 I, Lee Conboy, leave my P. O. D. and chemistry classes to anyone who is willing to take them.
 I, Jack Crenshaw, leave my ways to get along with dorm supervisors to Larry O'Connell.
 I, Sheila Daniels, leave my Kinnie, I. G. Class of 1953, to Carole Storke.
 I, Ginger Erwin, leave my height to Marvin Phillips.
 I, Richard Fanning, leave my knowledge of geometry to John Carlson.
 I, Harry Gamble, leave some new jokes to Mr. Gorte.
 I, Jerry Hatten, leave my charming old bus rides to Ken Rase.
 I, Katherine Hoff, leave my American history book to "Pee Wee" Horan in hopes he'll get more out of it than I did.
 I, Gene Horan, leave my 180 lbs. to my brother "Pee Wee" for football next year.
 I, Kathleen Kirvan, leave my walk to Emma Lou Hoover.
 I, Ruth Magadieu, leave my desk and books to Mary Temple.
 I, Carolyn Mayo, leave my long weekends to Judy Wallace in hopes that she'll never need them.
 I, Ann Moore, leave my Latin translations to "Doc" who always did them anyway.
 I, Jon Ramsden, leave my physics teacher, Miss Ealy, to John Musser.
 I, Dolores Rees, leave my books to anyone who will take them.
 I, Shirley Riedel, leave my books and desk to my "brothers," Bill Arnold and Lavele Register.
 I, John Saylor, leave my knack of mispronunciation to Babs Melancon.
 I, Edward Temple, leave my ability to grow a beard to Marvin Phillips.
 I, Elizabeth Thomas, leave my braces to "Shorty" Anderson.
 I, Nancy Brown, leave my long bus ride to Wertheim to anyone lucky enough to move up there.
 I, Alice Rubek, leave my P. O. D. book to Judy Smith.
 I, Gayle Frederick, leave my senior headaches to the unsuspecting lower classmen.

. . . Oh yes, the underclassmen. I really don't know where to start so bear with me, please.

For the first time in Nurnberg history, the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes all have been large enough to be divided into two homerooms. To get things started right, the juniors elected Marvin Phillips as their president. The sophomores followed suit by electing Kent Harrison and Wesley Saylor as their leaders. And finally the freshmen elected Delores Genzel for their president.

These three classes furnished us with many star players for our teams. The fellows, most of them new to this school, came forth with flying colors. And, of course, they had their share of social life. The sophomores gave a beautiful Christmas formal with out-of-this-world decorations and, to top it all, tricky little presents for the teachers.

We can't forget the junior-senior prom., The juniors really worked hard this year to finance and present one of the best proms ever. I think the seniors can sympathize with them because we know how much trouble — and how much fun — it was to give the prom last year.

We have a wonderful crop of future seniors in our school this year. They have what it takes — school spirit, pep, and intelligence. It almost makes me wish I could start all over again.

Let me start a new sheet of paper, and I'll tell you all about our clubs ...

SCHOOL LIFE

Our activities were so popular this year that a seventh period was set aside especially for clubs. For our "rah, rah" boys, we have the Lettermen's Club, and the kids all decked out in green and white at the games belong to the Pep Club. For those who feel they have a talent for writing, there are the Journalism Club, the newspaper, and the annual. The students who have maintained a "B" average belong to the National Honor Society. Brains, you know.

We really have a wonderful Student Council this year. Because of them, we have a Saturday radio program and a much more organized social schedule.

For the sports minded, we have the Rifle Club (alias the gun-happy gang), the Bowling Club, and the Girl's Athletic Association. And the Chess Club is so popular that it meets three times a week. For the shutter-bugs, we have a Camera Club. There they not only snap pictures but also learn the fundamentals of photography.

One of our most popular clubs in school is the German-American Club. Everyone feels that our relationship with the Germans is important; therefore most of the school belongs to the club, and it has really been active.

We have a wonderful mixed chorus. Those who belong have done a marvelous job singing at assemblies and for the various women's clubs. And, then too, there are those who are looking to the future with stars in their eyes. For them, we have the Dramatics Club.

We're so very proud of our school that a lot of spirit and effort goes into making our clubs worthwhile . . .

...I hope you'll forgive me for rattling on and on, but I can't help myself. Once I get started writing, I just can't stop until I've said it all. And now for SPORTS!

Since football is my favorite and also because the season is first in the school year, I'll start with that. We had a very good season studded with some spectacular runs. The fellows were very enthusiastic about going out — just about every boy in school was there for the first meeting. Right off the bat, they elected Gene Horan captain. He led them through some very exciting games.

By the time the boys had their breath back and some of the aches and pains were forgotten, basketball season was upon them. With renewed spirit, they practiced and practiced — and practiced. Although we lost our first game, we soon started rolling, and before we knew it, the season was over. Then baseball season was upon us. The tangy spring air had given the boys new life! And what a wonderful season we had! Next to football, I love baseball most. To me the sound of the bat hitting the ball is beautiful. Of course, with baseball one thinks of hot dogs and cokes. We had these too. I think I gained fifty pounds. More fun!

All those boys that were running around the field in their bathing trunks weren't really off their rockers. They were just practicing for the annual spring track meet. They all got over their huffing and puffing in time to put up a very good show ...

Well, gal, I've tried to give you an all-round description of our school. I hope I've succeeded. All in all, the school's not so different from the ones back home. It's true that not many of the schools back in the States have dormitories, but they're a lot of fun and it's very good experience for the kids. It gives them a responsibility — having to watch out for themselves without their parents keeping them in line. It's good training for when they're on their own. Don't you agree?

Another thing that's nice about being over here is that we can visit France, England, Holland, Switzerland, and many other European countries. They're all so close and they certainly provide an exciting way to spend holidays.

I must close now, but I'll write again in the very near future. I'll be waiting for your answer. Please hurry!!!

Bye now,

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Students discuss choice of the Dedication for Erinnerungen.

The sixth annual conference of the staffs of Erinnerungen, the combined yearbook of the American High Schools in Germany and France, met in Frankfurt on February 5, 1954. Eleven high schools and three junior highs were represented by two members from each annual staff and their faculty sponsors.

The out of town students were guests in the homes of the Frankfurt seniors who, under the direction of Miss Luise Kramer, arranged billeting, transportation, refreshments, and entertainment.

Dee Algeier from Stuttgart High School was elected chairman and ably led the group in the discussion and decisions, which were recorded by Pat Lawder from Frankfurt High School. The meeting was directed by Miss Gay Long, who has been in charge of the coordinating of the combined annual for the past five years.

This conference was the highlight of the year for the annual staffs who, since September, had worked hard to prepare their individual sections for this unique book which records the high school memories of students who live in widely scattered sections of the continent. Each staff submitted an entry for the end pages, state distribution map, dedication, and farewell to be voted on by the assembled group.

The opportunity to exchange ideas, discuss problems, get together for informal chats and parties, and to make the acquaintance of students from other schools were the main ingredients of this successful and enjoyable conference.

Representatives to the annual conference were:

FAREWELL

The final page of this book of memories is turned and we of the Class of 1954 must bid farewell. We earnestly hope that our experiences here may help us to strengthen the bonds of peace and friendship between our own homeland across the sea and our adopted homes in Europe.
