PRINCIPAL'S HANDBAGS BY RAM CONTEST HAS SURPRISING END

Handbags, women's greatest weapon, come in three general groups: small, large, and duffel bags.

The small, or clutchbag, is usually lined with lead and therefore takes less force to knock a person out. The small bag also goes against science by putting two items in the same place at the same time. If it didn't, girls would never be able to carry: hand lotion, three shades of lipstick, a compact, a hairbrush, one large comb, one small comb, a rat-tailed comb, three mirrors, five packs of gum, four shades of nail polish, a nail file, an eyebrow pencil and an eyelash curler, a pen, a pencil, a change purse, an autographed picture of their idol, a wallet some keys, and a small package of kleenex.

The large handbag, used as a weapon, when distance is required, is preferred during school because it can carry: a year's supply of love letters, a cheerleader's outfit, gymshoes, gym suit, Webster's unabridged dictionary, and a book of poetry. Or it may be used to carry the clothes needed on a weekend trip.

The duffel bag, carried by the studios, has been known to kill with one blow. It will hold everything the large bag will, plus: the Encyclopedia Bri-

After ten grueling weeks of floor waxing, window painting, door painting, sign making, floor decorating, and other numerous as well as backbreaking projects, the 1964 Principal's Contest came to a well-wished as well as surprising conclusion on the 11th of December.

The final results of the contest were announced the following Monday, with the Second Floor Girl's taking first place position by a close 18 point difference over the Second Floor boys who took second place. Third place position was taken by the First Floor Boys, who for a period of weeks gave the Second Floor Boys a fight which hurt both floors in the final results of the contest (look forward for the editorial covering this final statement in the first issue of the "PROCLAIMER" after Christmas vacation).

The first place prize is a trip to the Kris-Kindle Mart in downtown Nuernberg and the going out to dinner in Nuernberg. Normally the second place prize is a pizza party, but due to the Second Floor Boys valiant attempts to surpass the Second Floor Girls in the final week of judging, Mr. Stevens, sponsor of the contest, decided that a special prize would be awarded to these boys for their work. This prize is the going to a German restaurant in Nuernberg for dinner, and followed up with a trip to one of the theatres in Nuernberg. As of this date the third place prize has not been announced.

The Second Floor Girls will receive their prize on the night of the 16th of December and the Second Floor Boys will be presented with theirs on the 13th of January.

We of the "PROCLAIMER" staff would like to congratulate all three floors for their having placed in this year's contest.

It is with much regret that we have to make this announcement pertaining to the second floor girls failure to liberate communist controlled Cuba on the 10th of March.

The invasion began at 5 a.m. that morning, with one of the two invasion groups hitting the beach (Red Beach) two miles north of Antilla and the other group hitting the beach (Blue Beach) two hours later at Manzanillo.

With apparently both groups having established their beachheads, they started inland attempting to form a substantial front with the

NEW YORK TIMES COMPLETES MERGER WITH

by:

Walter Wrongwright

New York (PNS) It has become apparent today that negotiations between the Nuernberg American High School Dormitory "PROCLAIMER" and the "NEW YORK TIMES" have been successful, and the "TIMES" has agreed to merge with the "PROCLAIMER".

When the merger has been signed by both sides, the present circulation of the dorm "PROCLAIMER", which is currently 108, will increase to way over 15,000. Along with the merger such well known news writers as Jack Langguth, John W. Finney, Theodore Shahab, and Austin C. Wehrwein, will be writing for us. Also we will have such famous editorial writers, as Russel Baker, C. L. Sulzberger, and James Reston. So we are proud to say "WE DARE DEFEND-ALL THE NEWS THATS FIT TO WRITE."

SCHOOL TO BE CLOSED FOR MOURNING OF A.E.N.

Nuernberg (PSN) The sudden and tragic death of A.E.N.*, has incurred a state of disruption throughout Nuernberg American High School, due to Mr. George Stevens' announcement that the high school will be closed during the week of the 3rd, so that members of the faculty and students alike may pray for his soul.

Says one teacher of Mr. N*, "He was a primary figure in the formation of the American type of schooling. For this we all owe him a lot. In fact, I think that two weeks, instead of one, should be set aside, so that his soul would be extra sure to find peace."

The news of his death has swept the nation like the winds of a on, till an interview with the survivors some hours later in Miami, there seems to be little factual information leading to the result of the girls' defeat. Piecing the story together from separate interviews, our Cuban correspondent has compounded what he thinks to be relatively what happened.

"It is apparent that at 12 noon on the 10th of March, both groups met with heavy resistance from an enemy that at that time was yet to be seen. For almost two hours after the groups engaged in combat a continuous stream of artillery fire was being fired by both sides, apparently to soften up the resistance. At 2 o'clock both group commanders decided that they were sustaining too many casualties by staying in the positions they occupied. Therefore, they decided to attack their seemingly invisible enemies forthwith. But, alas, it was found that for almost three hours both groups had been attacking EACH other. Finding that each group had sustained almost 50% casualties through the two hour artillery barrage, it became self-evident that a successful coup at this time would be entirely impossible, therefore, General Pat Williams ordered an organized and rear-action withdrawal to the beaches to await transportation back to the States (this later became a mass rout, when a water snake revealed itself from beneath a log).

tornado. Within minutes after his death, at 11:03 in the Lakeway Institute of Chemical Economy (L.I.C.E.) telegrams were pouring in from around the nation. For example, one read:

AM GOING TO STOP SKIPPING SCHOOL STOP AN GOING TO STOP CUTTING CLASSES STOP AM GOING TO STOP DOING A LOT OF THINGS TO MOURN HIS DEATH STOP AM GOING TO STOP SOUNDING OFF TOO STOP-

We all owe much to Mr. A.E.N.*, and we encourage you to make good use of this time to mourn for him.

THE MUSIC SCENE FOR THOSE WHO THINK YOUNG

Hi! Everybody. This is the Music Scene and as a new column I'll try to supply all sorts of information about music ranging from pop to jazz. Even electronic gadgets and doo-hickeys will be mentioned in the future, so don't dissipate somewhere.

First off, for all you people that really like music, there are two good books on it.

WHAT TO LISTEN FOR IN MUSIC: Aaron Copland
LEARN TO READ MUSIC

Howard Shanet.

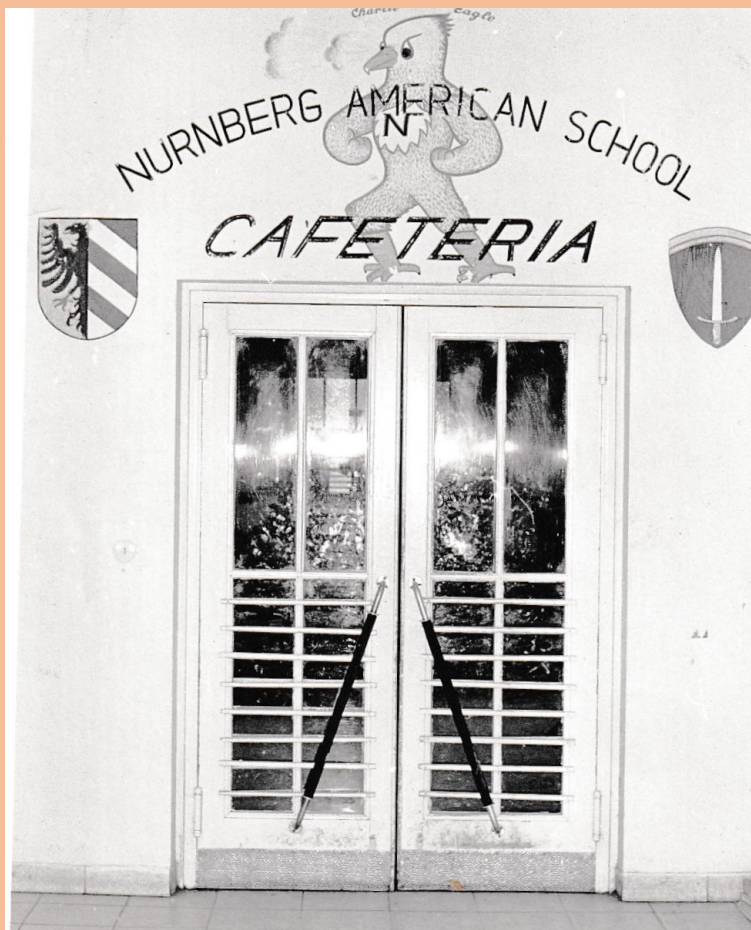

In addition to these there's the Miracle Series, which dwelves a little more into music theory.

For those of you that read the scope on jazz, there's plenty. The Amerstic stuff, especially after 10:30. If you want the Classical stuff, tune in at 8:30. You all know Radio Luxembourg, and that is a pretty good station. Another good bank (on jazz) is THE JAZZ HIP by Nat Hentoff. Henry Mancini has a new album coming out to keep up with Stan Kenton and Oscar Peterson- (honk up "Downbeat").

To get back on the safe side, Radio Luxemburg is still puttin' out good hit tunes after ten. All the latest on AFN. "Good Morning, Good Music," from 6:05 to 8:00, including those two "Bewitched" by Steve Lawrence and "Dear Heart" by Andy Williams (a pretty one). Some good albums are the Beach Boys and the Let-
