The

Senior

Class

1967

Mr. Luther Skelton

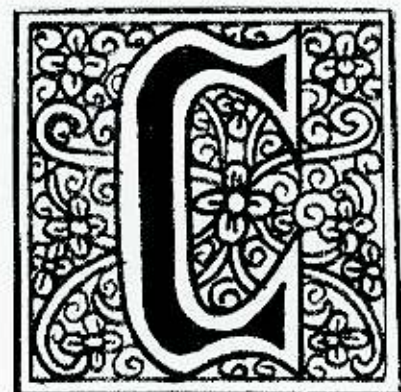

Principal

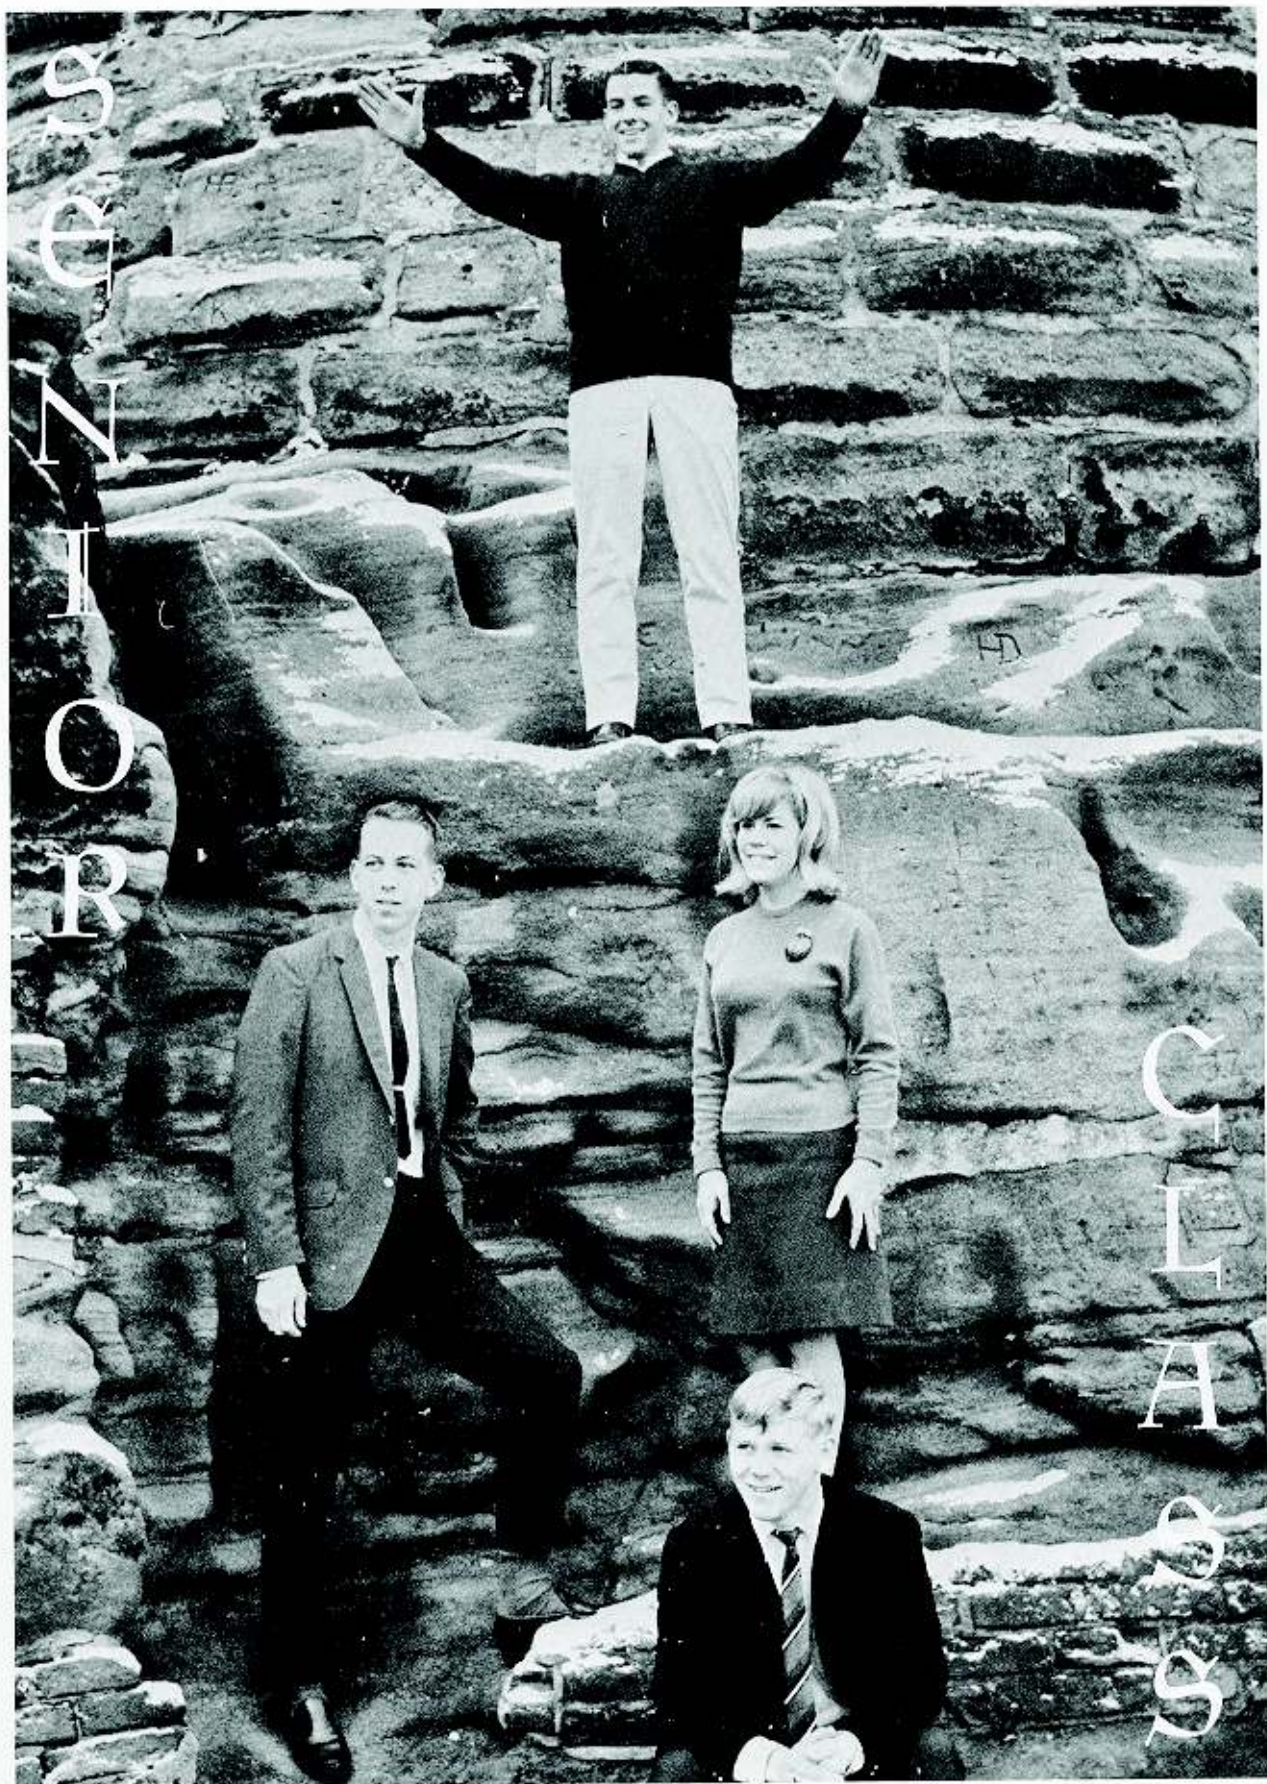

o the Seniors of 67, the spirit of today, the hope of tomorrow, ready to drive forward and encounter the problems of a troubled world or to continue your self-improvement and self-realization through education. Each must strive through preparation and deliberate planning to attain wisdom, the smoothness of security and the comfort of happiness.

ou must do this that mankind may say, youth accepts its responsibilities and carries forth in a manner symbolic of America.

ongratulations to you, The Senior Class of 67. I wish for you a rich, colorful and rewarding life. I hope the staff and administration of the Nürnberg American High School have been a source of encouragement and inspiration to you.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

President: DAVID BROWN
"Intelligence and will power are the blessings of mankind."

Vice-President: GORDON HUTCHINS
"Man of thought and man of action."

Secretary: TANEY HEIL

flashes of silence that make her conversation perfectly delightful."

REBECCA BROWN
"Act well your part; there all the honor lies."

PAUL CHRISTENSEN
"Strong and content I travel the open road."

CHARLES DANIEL
"Thinking is the hardest work there is, which is why so few of us engage in it."

HAROLD DARLING
"Needless words never burn the tongue."

BARBARA DISHOZY
"A sensitive Being, a creative Soul."

DANNY DORNE
"Thinkin' is like sin. Them as don't do it is ascairt of it, but them as do it enough get to like it."

woman has her way."

DAVID FISHMAN
"Aye, every inch a king."

SHARRON GARBETT
"A joy for youthful sports."

RANDALL GELWIX
"Men blame fate for some accidents, but they take personal credit when they make a hole in one."

MICHAEL GEORGE
"The accent of a man's native country dwells in his mind and in his heart
as well as in his speech."

THOMAS GREENE
"A fresh, a free, a friendly man."

SALLY GREENE
"It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice."

and then, is relished by the best of men."

ROBERT KIRK
"Patience is the best remedy for anything."

DOROTHEA KNIPPERT
"Laughter is an art. "

ROBIN KOCH
"Knowledge is more than equivalent to force. "

ROBERT LAMOREAUX
"Common sense is not so common. "

PHYLLIS LAPINE
"And kind as kings upon their coronation day. "

JAMES LAUHER
"Remember this--that very little is needed to make a happy life. "

RAYMOND LEMIRE
"All our knowledge is ourselves to know. "

BONNIE LEWIS
"Her wise smile is sweet with certainties. "

RICHARD LITTLESTONE
"A forthright man mixed with a touch of humor. "

CATHY LIVEOAK
"Speak gently . . . The good, the joy, that it may bring, Eternity shall tell. "

GWENDOLYN LOCKET
"The best portion of a good woman's life is her little,
nameless, unremembered
acts of kindness. "

BEVERLY LUCE
 "There are a few things that never go out of style, and a feminine woman is one of them."

JOELLE MARTINEZ
 "They find me equal to the task what e're it may be."

STELLA MARTINEZ
 "A cheerful temper joined with innocence will make beauty attractive and wit good nature."

DIANE McALLISTER
 "All succeeds with people who are gay and cheerful."

JOHN McKEMIE

"Found--one pearl of great price. "

GLENDA ROBINSON
"A witty woman is a treasure; a witty beauty
is a power. "

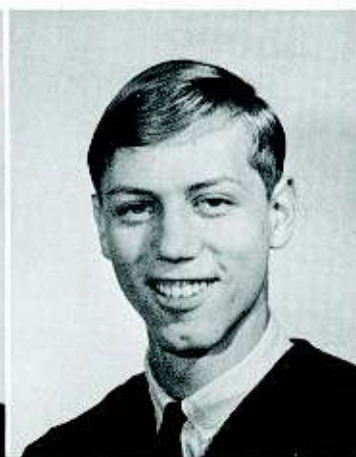

MANUEL SANCHEZ
"It is in men as in soils
where sometimes there is a vein of gold. "

ROBERT SCHREIBER
"The whole life of man is but a point of time; let us enjoy it while it lasts. "

BARBARA SCHMIDT
"Gentleness is far more successful than violence. "

DONALD SCHWARTZ
"Art is not an end in itself, but a means of addressing humility. "

THOMAS SHELTON
"I have been acquainted with the night. "

EDWARD SLOUGH
"Happiness is having friends. "

CHARLOTTE SMITH
"Smiles with the intent to do mischief."

so sweet in life as love's
young dream."

JAMES SMITH
"Things well said and songs well sung."

MILDRED SMITH
"Her bright smile haunts me still."

DEBORAH SPERRY
"The rising blushes which her cheek o'er spread, are opening roses in the lilly's bed."

JEFFERY STINE
"You know I say just what I think and nothing more nor less."

LOUIS STRENGER
"A youth to whom so much was given; so much of earth, so much of hearth,
and impetuous blood."

GORDON STUBBS
"Not so bashful after all."

TERRY THOMAS
"Every man has his devilish moments."

Presenting a trilogy of one-act plays, Jan. 11 and 12, the NHS thespians were seen at their best.

The TRILOGY opened with "Here We Are", a comedy which left the audience aching with laughter. Tom Pond and Sandy Smith played their parts excellently.

The evening's second play was "The Valiant". Tom Goebeler and Jill Dalton moved the audience to tears with their final lines.

The final play was "The More the Merrier", a hilarious, well-acted comedy. The entire cast did exceptionally well.

We congratulate Becky Brown and Mike Zempter for the outstanding job they did in directing these plays.

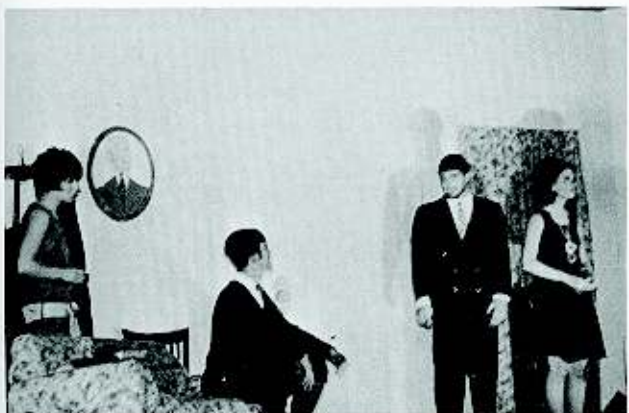

Mark Norman

RUN!

On Nov. 23, a band of NHS students set out on a Thanksgiving trip to London. After arriving at Gatwick Airport at about 12 o'clock midnight, most prepared to get a good night's sleep in preparation for the next day's tour.

After seeing such famous places as Westminster Chapel, The tower of Big Ben, St. Paul's Cathedral, the Parliament Buildings, and 10 Downing Street, the students enjoyed themselves on their own. Several went to the theater while others sampled the boutiques on Carnaby Street. The rest just wandered about town taking the sights as they came.
