INTRODUCTION

The 1968-1969 school year has been a year of change characterized by such breaks from tradition as Jose Feliciano's rendition of the national anthem and the wave of rebellion that has swept across the nation's campuses. There is greater emphasis on the individual and what he believes. At Nurnberg, we too have kept pace with the spirit of progress that predominates today. This yearbook has been assembled with this thought in mind, to give a valid representation of the youthful spirit present in our school. We sincerely hope that in years to come this annual will be a source of vivid recollection of the years spent at Nurnberg High.

In appreciation of his four years of hard work as an algebra teacher and school monetary custodian, we dedicate THE ANNUAL 1969 to Mr. Hans Jenssen-Tusch.

THANK YOU, MR. JENSSSEN.

The art on the following pages was specially created for THE ANNUAL 1969 by artists Eleanora Curry and Charlene Bowser. THE ANNUAL extends its thanks to these two for their invaluable help.

Special recognition also goes to part-time photographers Mike Miles, Keith Kleinfelder, and Steve Gotowicki.

In the immenseness of it all,
I'm here;
Only for a moment to live--
To breathe my toxic life
Away:
Soon I will leave--
A nothing.
